About Couture Concepts

Couture Concepts, event planning and floral boutique offers a one-of-a kind experience in Event Production. Our team comprises dedicated professionals with over twenty years of combined experience in event management. We are committed to excellence, our goal is to design each event to the client's personal style, discerning taste and unique personality, beginning with the consultation phase we provide in depth attention to ensure "we get it right the first time every time". We listen to your needs and work with you to bring your vision to reality. We find pleasure in making it easy and convenient and offer en suite consultation during your site visit to the island or start the planning with a conference call. To give each event the undivided attention it deserves, we book a limited number of events per week to maintain our integrity and ensure the execution process is seamless every time.

Our services include Event Planning and Management, Floral Designs and Event Rentals. We specialize in the organization and logistics of destination events by finding the perfect venues and suppliers to suit your vision and production needs. The key word for our service is "customization" no matter what the event or occasion we find creative and tailor-made solutions. We focus on building our reputation through the delivery of professional service, attention to details. We don't believe in just meeting your expectations; we strongly believe in EXCEEDING them..... Couture Concepts telling a different kind of story.....yours. Contact us today.

For the couple who wants to slip away and have a simple yet elegant private ceremony on a remote beach as the sun slips away into a stunning Caribbean sunset.
